

Ray Stevens

I am a retired Police Lieutenant from New York and a former Pinellas County Deputy Sheriff. My last assignment in New York before I retired was that of Administrative Lieutenant. My duties and responsibilities included, Personnel Management, Public Information, Information services, Management, Special Events Planning, Development and Implementation of Traffic Facilitation plans, and Problem Intersection Assessment.

I am a graduate of Pace University NY.

I was an adjunct Professor at Keiser College, Daytona Beach.
United States Coast Guard Master Vessel operator (Boat Captain)