Florida's Nonagricultural Employment by Industry (Seasonally Adjusted)

- The number of jobs in Florida was 7,291,500 in December 2011, up 113,900 jobs compared to a year ago. December was the fifteenth consecutive month with positive annual job growth after the state lost jobs for over three years. The industry gaining the most jobs was trade, transportation, and utilities (+37,200 jobs, +2.6 percent).
- Other industries gaining jobs included leisure and hospitality (+30,400 jobs, +3.3 percent); private education and health services (+27,300 jobs, +2.5 percent); professional and business services (+15,200 jobs, +1.5 percent); financial activities (+8,700 jobs, +1.9 percent); manufacturing (+5,600 jobs, +1.8 percent); and other services (+1,600 jobs, +0.5 percent).
- These industry job gains were partially due to increases in clothing and accessory stores; food services and drinking places; ambulatory health care services; management and technical consulting services; real estate; fabricated metal product manufacturing; and personal and laundry services.
- Industries losing jobs over the year included total government (-7,900 jobs, -0.7 percent), information (-3,400 jobs, -2.5 percent), and construction (-1,000 jobs, -0.3 percent).
- These industry job losses were partially due to losses in state government, telecommunications, and construction of buildings.

Local Area Unemployment Statistics (Not Seasonally Adjusted)

- In December 2011, Monroe County (6.2 percent) had the state's lowest unemployment rate, followed by Liberty County (6.3 percent), Okaloosa County (7.1 percent), and Walton County (7.5 percent). Many of the counties with the lowest unemployment rates were those with relatively high proportions of government employment.
- Flagler County had the highest unemployment rate (13.9 percent) in Florida in December 2011, followed by Hendry County (13.5 percent), Hernando County (12.7 percent), Hamilton County (12.0 percent), and St. Lucie County (11.9 percent). Over-the-year job losses in information and government and long-term job losses in construction contributed to Flagler County's high unemployment rate. There were 27 Florida counties with double-digit unemployment rates in December, down from 33 in November.

Area Nonagricultural Employment (Not Seasonally Adjusted)

- Fifteen metro areas of the 22 in the state had over-the-year job gains in December 2011. The areas with the largest gains were Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater (+28,500 jobs, +2.5 percent), Miami-Miami Beach-Kendall (+18,200 jobs, +1.8 percent), and Jacksonville (+10,600 jobs, +1.8 percent).
- Of the metro areas with job declines, the largest losses were in Palm Bay-Melbourne-Titusville (-3,500 jobs, -1.8 percent), Pensacola-Ferry Pass-Brent (-2,100 jobs, -1.3 percent), and Lakeland-Winter Haven (-2,100 jobs, -1.1 percent).

Note: These unemployment and job growth rates are estimates, which are primarily based on surveys created and mandated by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics in cooperation with the Florida Department of Economic Opportunity.

The unemployment rate is derived from Florida household surveys conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau under contract with the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. The job growth rate is derived from Florida employer surveys conducted by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Both estimates are revised on a monthly basis. In addition, these estimates are benchmarked (revised) annually based on actual counts from Florida's Unemployment Compensation tax records and other data.

New procedures recently mandated by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics may result in more variable month-to-month changes. For further information, go to: http://www.bls.gov/sae/cesprocs.htm
