

BIO Sims Jones

I graduate High school in 1971, work many odd Job till 1979 when I went to work for Western Electric repairing telephones, in 1982 started working for the New York City Fire Department until 1997 when I left the job on disability. I moved to Florida in 2005 and have been busy since I been here. This is what I been doing.

Sims E. Jones, The Pastor of God's Love Ministry Soul Saving Station. Retired New York City Fire Fighter, The Board Of Elders Chairman of the Soul Saving Station Organization, Chaplin for The Medical Reserve Corps Flagler County, The Vulcan Men's Club Palm Coast Chaplin, and the Treasurer of the Flagler Area Ministerial Association (FAMA). On the Board of Team Flagler CDC. Runs the People Helping People Center Bunnell. 1st Vice President and Chairman of the Religious Affairs Flagler County Branch NAACP. On the 7th District DJJ Disproportionate Minority Contact Committee. On the Board of Focus On Flagler Youth Coalition. A Member of Palm Coast Kiwanis Club. Abundant Life Ministries - Hope House Incorporated, Member of the Flagler Black Clergy Association, on the Board of the Precious Hearts Foundation, A Foster Parent in Flagler County. A devoted husband and a loving father. He is an ordained minister of the gospel. Pastor Jones has been in the ministry of God for over 20 years. He teaches, Preaches, and Ministers to God's people in many ways. He works with others faith based organization in the homeless and food ministries. Pastor Jones has ministered in churches home and aboard. Pastor Jones is devoted to God and His people. His goal is to show the love of God to all he comes in contact with.