On February 17, 2017 I was approached by a parent who's 8-year-old child gets on and off the school bus at the above intersection. I was advised an unknown male approached her daughter and showed her a drawing of a dog and stated it was lost. The unknown male asked for the juvenile's assistance in locating the dog. I was informed by the parent that there has been a male who has been riding a blue bicycle in the area and attempts to speak with the kids at the bus stop. He is described as being in his late 40s with a scruffy beard. He is reported to be between 5'11-6'0 tall (case #13944-17).

I spoke with a few kids that got off the bus and they all reported seeing a male fitting the same description who attempts to speak with them when there are no adults at the bus stop. They also added that the male always wears a baseball cap. He is observed riding his bicycle through the Madison Green apartment complex. On the same date I was sitting near the school bus stop and was out of view of the roadway when I observed a white male, later to be identified as William Walsh, riding his blue bicycle and wearing a black baseball cap. He was riding in the direction of the apartment complex on McCormick Drive and immediately after observing myself and my marked patrol vehicle he turned around and proceeded on to the sidewalk heading westbound on State Highway 100.

I stopped William due to fitting the description of the suspicious male and his suspicious behavior of turning around when he observed law enforcement. William stated he was headed home and he became scared when he observed law enforcement. It should be noted that William does not live in the Madison Green apartments but rather he lives within the City of Bunnell. William had two plastic bags hanging from his handle bars and within plain view was 3 pairs of children's underwear. He advised he bought them for a girl but could not provide a name. At this time Miranda Warnings were read to William. William denied any involvement of speaking with any children at the bus stop. During a consensual search of William's person he was observed to be wearing girls underwear.

Contact was made with [REDACTED] in reference to her incident and she was provided a photo lineup by Sgt. Ragazzo that contained William's photograph. [REDACTED] was able to identify William from the array as the one and the same that smacked her on the buttocks. During this time [REDACTED] was emotional and was crying. After being identified, William was placed under arrest for felony child abuse. After being secured William acknowledged speaking with [REDACTED] while riding his bicycle but denied smacking her on the buttocks.

William was transported to the FCIF without incident.
